ePayments

One contract / infinite possibilities

Whether you're looking to expand across Europe on one reliable platform, or to manage the payments for existing European entities' under one single contract, Ingenico Collect is just the ticket. Ingenico Collect enables you to offer the preferred payment methods of buyers across Europe. There's no need to open bank accounts or create a new legal entity in each country. All you have to do is choose which payment methods you'd like to accept.

Three powerful benefits

Helping you to sell more, to sell further and to save time, Ingenico Collect does it all.

- Increase conversion by offering more payment methods / When you let your customers choose how they want to pay, they're more likely to complete their transactions. With Ingenico Collect you can offer customers across Europe a choice of the payment methods they know and trust.
- Expand easily into new markets / If you trade internationally, or you intend to soon, Ingenico Collect is an obvious fit for your business. With one single contract, you'll have instant access to your buyers' preferred payment methods, placing millions of new customers within your reach.
- Save time on reconciliation / Instead of juggling different reports, payment cycles and conditions for every activated payment method, you'll receive funds and reports in one single batch. Managing all your payments in this way, from just the one account, your business will save significant time and resource.

More payment methods / more conversion

More payments methods under one single contract.

Ingenico Collect is your one-stop solution for accepting and collecting payment methods on the Ingenico payment gateway. Ingenico Collect can now be offered for:

Our key features

Only requires one single contract /

You'll only have one contract to manage, instead of a contract for every acquirer in every country.

Single funding and reporting flow /

You can receive payments in a single funds transfer and with a single reporting, for example iDEAL payments from the Netherlands, Bancontact /Mister Cash payments from Belgium and Sofort payments from Germany.

Combines with your other payment methods /

You can manage all your payments on the same platform, including those you receive from other payment methods such as PayPal or American Express.

Issues refunds /

You can issue refunds whenever you want to – even for some payment methods that don't offer this functionality.

Offers local bank transfers /

You can let your customers pay by local bank transfer and get notified as soon as the payment has been received.

New payment methods added regularly /

As soon as a new payment method is available in your Collect offering, you'll be able to add it to your payment page.

Disputes module /

All information on retrieval requests and chargebacks which impact your transactions are centralized in a dedicated module, allowing you to act more quickly.
